

Five banks dominate bank and thrift deposits in Washington

Bank of America, Wells Fargo, U.S. Bank, JPMorgan Chase and KeyBank held nearly 60 percent of the $109.3 billion in bank and thrift deposits in Washington state as of June 30, 2011. The data does not include credit unions, which hold approximately 20 percent of all deposits in Washington.

Percent of Washington state bank deposits

Source: Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Reporting and analysis by Sanjay Bhatt / The Seattle Times and Hil Lyons / UW Center For Statistical Consulting